- Human translation

This device has a large built-in database of commonly used phrases.

- Computer translation

1. If the user does not type the phrase in the exact same way that it is listed in the database, or the database does not include a phrase, then the Computer will automatically generate a translation.

e.g.: This is a beautiful city

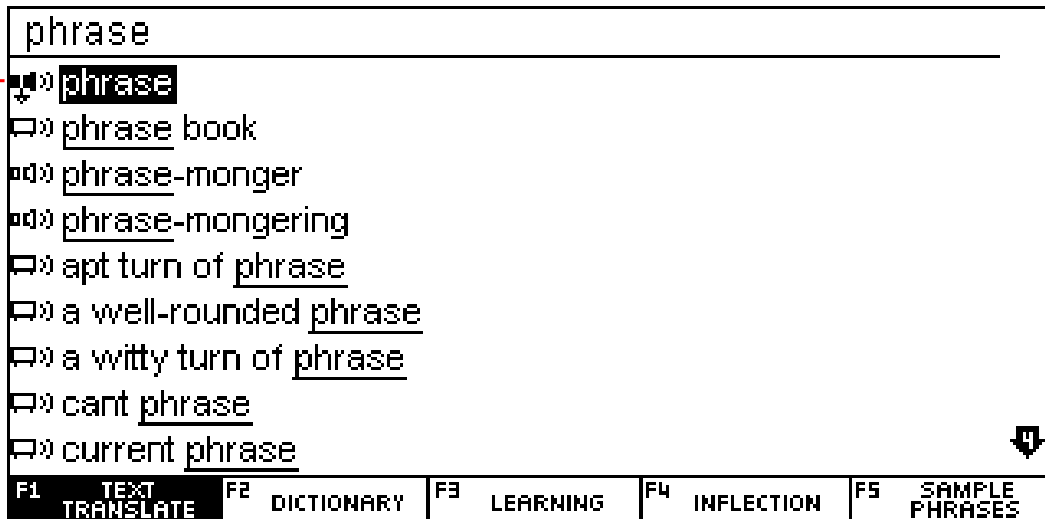

2. Since the translation is generated by computer, the result should be used as reference rather than exact translation.
3. If only a single word is entered, while the dictionary is operating in Text Translator mode, the product will automatically transfer to the Dictionary interface.

Voice Matching (Record and Play-Back)

This feature provides a good way to practice pronunciation.

Press and hold the SHIFT key, then use the  key.

First, the original pronunciation will play. Then the screen will notify you when the recording will start. When you have finished repeating the phrase, press any key to stop the recording. Both pronunciations will play back automatically.

Alternate Pronunciation

If a Human Pronunciation is available for a phrase, this function allows the user to listen to the Computer Pronunciation, rather than the normal Human Pronunciation.

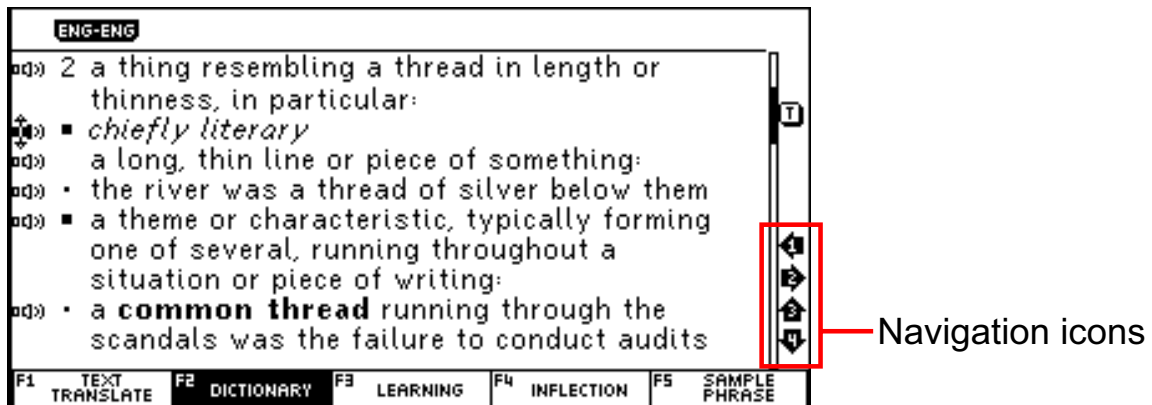

The Computer Pronunciation provides a slower pace by separately pronouncing each individual word in the phrase. This feature can help ones to clearly distinguish the correct pronunciation for each word.

E.g. Enter the phrase: “How can I get in touch with you?”

Press the ALT key, followed by the  key. You will hear the Computer Pronunciation, instead of the Human Pronunciation.

The entry for 'negotiate' is more detailed, starting with '[transitive verb], [intransitive verb]' and the phonetic transcription (ni'gəʊli:et). It then lists two numbered definitions in Russian with English equivalents: 1. (arrange) договариваться, -раться o+ prepositional; (conduct negotiations over) вести (imperfective) переговоры o+ prepositional; (conclude agreement on) приходить, -йти к соглашению o+ prepositional; 2. (get over or through) пробираться, -раться. The function bar at the bottom is the same as in the Muller dictionary.

Comet Dictionary (Beginner)

The screenshot shows the Comet Dictionary (Beginner) interface. The menu bar at the top is identical to the other dictionaries, but the 'COMET' option is highlighted with a red box and a red arrow. The entry for 'negotiate' is presented in a bilingual format. It starts with 'ENGLISH: negotiate [verb]' and the phonetic transcription / ni'gəʊli:et, ni'gəʊli:et/. Below this, it lists four numbered definitions in Russian, each followed by its phonetic transcription: 1. вести переговоры [verb] (vesti peregovory); 2. договариваться [verb] (dogovarivat'sya); 3. обсуждать [verb] (obsuzhdat'); 4. преодолевать [verb]. The function bar at the bottom is the same as in the other dictionaries.
